Can you work out the answers? Hint: Some of their names are clues.

- Neither Cindy nor either of the boys who trains in the Southern hemisphere, is a 10th kyu
- The student training towards their red belt lives in a place with a Union Jack on its flag
- Owen, who has a male Sensei, is a lower grade than either of the girls, each of whom trains on a different continent
- The highest grade is a teenager and trains at the birthplace of GKR Karate with a Sensei who really cares about the meaning of each kata move
- Holly is neither the eldest nor the youngest student
- The student who doesn't pay attention lives in his country's capital city
- Cindy's brother is a cowboy
- The eldest and youngest students are different genders
- 8 year old Charlie does not train in England nor is he a brown belt
- None of the male Senseis has female students
- The Sensei who used to be in the army trains the 6 year old
- The 6th kyu's excessive energy tests her Sensei's spirituality to the limits
